

GENESIS 4:17 – 5:5

1. In this section, we see what happens to Cain and his descendants. On the one hand, they are credited with many good things. On the other hand, they are credited with the extension of evil. In a way, they are truly fecund – multiplying and filling the earth with their descendants and their wickedness. What does this tell us about the nature of man?

2. In verse 25, 26, what is the significance of Eve's statement about the birth of Seth?
(What does the name Seth mean?)

3. What is the significance of the phrase, "At that time men began to call on the name of the LORD"?

How does this relate to the Ten Commandments? (See also Joel 2:32)
