

Genesis 8 and 9

1. What is the significance of the statement, “God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark?”
2. What is the symbolism of the raven (which returns) and the dove (which does not return)?
3. What are the terms of the Covenant which God makes with Noah? How is that Covenant made or ratified?
4. The rainbow is a covenant sign, a reminder of the covenant that exists. With whom is this covenant made?

Who is reminded by the rainbow?

5. To gain a sense of why this is important, read 1 Peter 3:18-22
