The Passover with the Disciples

17 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the Passover?" 18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Passover in Exodus 12

Read Exodus 12:1-15

The Passover in Exodus 12

1. Kill a Lamb – a male without blemish
2. Blood – placed on the door post and lintel (beam above the door)
3. Take and eat the body – including the whole animal, roasted, without additions
4. Eat in readiness – loins girded, sandals on, standing (staff in hand), in haste.
5. Protects from Judgment
6. Everlasting Memorial Feast – Seven days of unleavened bread

Read Exodus 12:43-48

1. No foreigner may eat of it
2. To be eaten in homes
3. Strangers admitted (who are circumcised and therefore part of the covenant) are to be admitted into the home for the celebration of the Feast

Back to The Passover with the Disciples

17 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the Passover?" 18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

20 When it was evening, he reclined at table with the twelve. 21 And as they were eating, he said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me." 22 And they were very sorrowful and began to say to him one after another, "Is it I, Lord?" 23 He answered, "He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me will betray me. 24 The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born." 25 Judas, who would betray him, answered, "Is it I, Rabbi?" He said to him, "You have said so."

26 Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." 27 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you, 28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

“They were very sorrowful...one after another, ‘Is it I, Lord’”

They knew their own hearts and it terrified them. How many times had they already betrayed him in small and large ways?

Peter, James and John, (falling asleep, disbelief, opposition, selfish gain...)

Main Point: Jesus' death is inevitable.

In deed, it is the reason for the incarnation. All that has come before, both in Jesus' life and in the whole history of the world, has lead to this Passover sacrifice.
